YOUR REF:

16 September 2015

To: ICCFM and Catholic Community in Mexico.

Through: The ICCFM President and Secretary/Treasurer – Mexico.

Dear Friends in the Lord,

A WORD OF GRATITUDE TO THE ICCFM AND THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IN MEXICO FROM HIS LORDSHIP PETER MUSIKUWA, BISHOP CHAIRMAN OF PASTORAL COMMISSION IN MALAWI

On behalf of the Episcopal Conference of Malawi, I write to express my sincere gratitude to you the International Couple President, George and Roselinda, International Couple Secretary/Treasurer Edger and Cynthia, from the ICCFM, for visiting Malawi and introducing in Malawi and Africa, the Evangelical Solidarity Project (ESP). We are very thankful because the ESP is a transformative formation for families so that they can play their rightful and needed role in Evangelization. I am very optimistic that once the ESP is implemented in Malawi, the CFM members and many families will benefit and become missionary families, reaching out to others; strengthen them amidst the present challenges facing modern families.

I have to take this opportunity to thank and congratulate the Catholic Church in Mexico for its efforts in ensuring formation of family and pastoral care of families. This is really commendable and admirable. Today because of globalization, families even in Malawi, just like the rest of the world, are facing enormous challenges. It is not easy to come up with a comprehensive and coherent pastoral response amidst the limited financial and personnel resources. However, I am very confident with the missionary cooperation and solidarity which ICCFM and Catholic Community of Mexico has shown us, will continue to bring a difference in the Christian Families in Malawi.

As Catholic Church in Malawi, we would like to learn more than what we have shared in the few days, on how best the Clergy and Laity can enhance Christian family formation and pastoral care of families. I hope ways will be found to learn more from Catholic Church in Mexico.

As I promise my prayers, I also wish you all, a fruitful ministry in the Vineyard of the Lord.

Yours faithfully,

Rt. Rev. Peter Musikuwa
Bishop Chairman of Pastoral Commission in the Episcopal Conference of Malawi

Participation in the VIII world meeting of the 2015 families in Philadelphia, Pa.

Participation in the VIII world meeting of the 2015 families in Philadelphia, Pa.

Participating in the world meeting of the families 2015 in Philadelphia has been a beautiful experience for us, not just for the opportunity to listen to lectures given by great personalities that speak of love, mercy, and the immense value of the family in society and in the present and future of the world, but that it can be felt in the presence of so many people from different countries and continents with the same interest and objective: demonstrate that the family is fully alive and that love is our mission and to fulfill it is important to give to know the "good news" of the message of Jesus Christ. To feel the atmosphere of faith and brotherhood that could generate a single language of communication, "love", we can see that in the hands of each one is creating an environment of peace, generosity, mercy and love in our families and brothers that surround us.

The 8th world meeting of families, started on 22 September with the Holy Mass, concelebrated by Cardinals, bishops and priests from around the world. Four days from 22 to 25 September there were lectures on topics related to the family that bishops risked priests and lay people specialized in the subject, after every one of them were carried out workshops at the same time and in different languages and each who picked which wanted to attend, with topics as diverse as: family and migration Violence in the family, family and evangelization, the family within the Church, the role of grandparents in family life, and many more.

Indescribable atmosphere at the Festival of families at mass with father Francis, which made us shout in one voice our love for him and who represents, feeling its proximity, its easy attitude and joy to see us together and at the same time sign in his words and advice as a father speaking to his children is required very clear. Here, a couple of examples.

"A society grows good if it builds on the basis of the family. All the truth that God has Yes, delivery to the family".

"If we want to defend the family, must not forget children or grandparents, because children and young people are the future, force, are those in which we hope;" and grandparents are the memory of the family, which gave us faith."

One of our favorite quotes: "Love manifests itself in small things, at minimum attention to the everyday, which makes life always have flavor at home. For this reason, our families, our homes, are true domestic churches. It is the place where the faith is life and life is faith."

We give infinite thanks to God because he has shown us his immense love by giving us participate in this event and those who made it possible that we were there.

INTERNATIONAL CONFEDERATION OF CHRISTIAN FAMILY MOVEMENT

1° READ SLOWLY AND CAREFULLY CHAPTER III PROCLAIMING THE GOSPEL:

After taking into consideration some challenges of the current reality, I remember now the task that impels us at any time and place, because "there is no true evangelization without the explicit proclamation that Jesus is Lord," and without a "primacy of the proclamation of Jesus Christ in all evangelizing work." Picking up the concerns of Asian Bishops John Paul II said that if the Church "must fulfill its providential destiny, evangelization as the joyful preaching, patient and progressive of salvific death and resurrection of Jesus Christ must be your absolute priority ". This applies to all. 110.

I. The whole People of God announces the Gospel

Evangelization is the task of the Church. But this subject of evangelization is more than an organic and hierarchical institution, because it is primarily a people on pilgrimage toward God. It is certainly a mystery rooted in the Trinity, but has its historical concretion in a pilgrim and evangelizing people, which always transcends all necessary institutional expression. I propose dwell a little on this understanding of the Church, which has its ultimate foundation in the free and gratuitous initiative of God. 111.

2° REFLECT THESE PARAGRAPHS OF POPE FRANCISCO, WHAT SAID TO YOU

3° ANSWER THE QUESTIONS AND SHARE:

A. In the apostolate in ICCFM we consider that our attitude and evangelizing action is a progressive cheerful announcement, patient and salvific death and resurrection that is offered by Jesus Christ?

B. In the participation in the mission Do I feel part of the Church as a pilgrim and evangelizing people? Or do I let of my subjectivism to do with my own forces without regard to the Church?

Prayer for ICCFM World Assembly 2016

*July 15-17, 2016
San Antonio, Texas*

Loving God, our Father, we thank you for all the families whom you have called to be part of the Christian Family Movements in every continent. Protect them and inspire them to have hope for the future that will benefit every family on earth.

As we prepare for the Thirteenth World Assembly of Christian Family Movements, we pray that your Spirit may continue to guide our preparations for this gathering of the CFM leaders from throughout the world.

Teach us to recognize your grace at work in the signs of the times and become missionary disciples of the joy of the Gospel. Show us how to respond with love and hope to your call to strengthen families in the light of faith in Jesus Christ.

May the Holy Family, Jesus, Mary and Joseph, be our models of love and service in our homes, in our Church, and in society. Amen.
